R104,5 million. The extension is within budget and on schedule for completion in September 2016. The mall’s dominance in the region for the foreseeable future. The expansion is projected to yield 5% on the forecast yield.

Construction of the 17 396m² GLA expansion to I’langa Mall commenced in October 2015. The expansion increased grocery offering in Kathu, the addition of Food Lover’s Market will not proceed at this stage.

The Resilient board has resolved that the expansion will proceed to an increased gross lettable area of 23 596m² with an estimated budget of R764 million. The balance of the budget will be funded by existing debt facilities.

The gross lettable area of expertly selected sites in key regional centres has been increased by 5% to 12%.

The expanded mall will extend its trading hours to accommodate suppliers and to extend current market share.

There were no transfers between levels 1, 2 and 3 during the period.

The information contained in notes 2, 7 and 8 and the “Fair value information” section of note 9 has been reviewed by the SAICA and the IASB and has been accepted for publication. The information has been reviewed in accordance with the SAICA’s requirements for the review of financial reporting information.

The Resilient board has resolved to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Categorisation of investments Statement of comprehensive income

The change in exchange rate is a result of the fulfilment of investment property purchase obligations.

The Resilient board has resolved to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.

The Resilient board has decided to invest in dominant regional retail centres with a minimum of three anchor tenants and let to a combination of national and local retailers.

Resilient’s investment in the group’s holdings in Hammerson, Nepi and Rockcastle for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2. The group’s financial information for the June 2016 year is shown in the notes on page 2.

Resilient has no dilutionary instruments in issue.